WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Port authorities at New York were ordered by the Treasury teday to release the Canadian schooner Emerald, whose science outside the three-mile limit by the prohibition authorities resulted in a protest from the British government. Treasury officials acted upon the recommendation of the State Department, where it was indicated that the seizure was recorded as in violation of the policy laid down by President Harding Notes and Under Which the prohibition navy was ordered to confine its operations to American territorial waters except in the cases of vessels found to be in communication with the shore by means of their own boats or crews.
